

NEWS RELEASE

Submitted By Peggy Hayes

Robin Wilson was honored on June 4, 2008, at the Yuma City Council Regular Session for her selection as Buyer of the Year by the Desert Southwest Chapter of NIGP. Mark Watson, City Administrator, gave a narrative of the selection process and the qualities that garnered Robin the award. For her accomplishment, Robin was awarded one of the City's Commemorative Gold Coins.

Through Robin's constant attention to detail and her drive to improve the City's purchasing processes, she's made great strides towards the advancement of the Purchasing Profession in the public eye.

Robin is the current Education Secretary for the Desert Southwest Chapter (DSW), and will soon be taking her oath to office as the new Vice President. Robin also serves as Vice President to the City of Yuma Employee Association (COYEA). She is an active member of the Yuma 4-H and Future Farmers of America Associations, the American Diabetes Association and the American Cancer Society.

Congratulations Robin on a job well done!

(L to R - Mark Watson, Robin Wilson, Rocky Brannan)
Picture by City of Yuma Strategic Communications Department

